

(SDSU graduation exercises held Dec. 11)

BROOKINGS, S.D.—South Dakota State University’s graduation exercises were held Saturday, Dec. 11.

Honorary marshals were Dr. Charles Canaan, professor emeritus of music, and Dr. Martha Iken, assistant professor emerita of nursing.

Outstanding faculty members recognized with F.O. Butler awards were: Jerome Fielder, chief business officer and associate director of finance and budget, for excellence in service; Dr. John Walker, assistant professor of music and director of keyboard studies, for excellence in creative activity; Dr. Christine Larson, associate professor of mathematics and statistics, for excellence in teaching; Dr. Joseph Santos, associate professor of economics, for excellence in teaching; and Dr. David Clay, professor of plant science, for excellence in research.

Dr. David Hilderbrand, dean of the Graduate School, Research and Sponsored Programs and professor of chemistry emeritus, delivered the graduation address, “Research – An Open-Minded Thought Process.”

Music was provided by the SDSU Concert Band, under the direction of Jim Coull.

The conferring of degrees and presentation of diplomas was conducted by SDSU President Peggy Gordon Miller and the college deans. Also taking part in the program were Carol J. Peterson, provost and vice president for Academic Affairs; Lt. Col. John Holter of Army ROTC; Lt. Col. Craig Bond of Air Force ROTC; Ed Fiegen, president of the SDSU Alumni Association; James Hansen of the South Dakota Board of Regents; and Joel Hefling, chair of the Academic Senate.

The names of honor graduates are marked with an asterisk (*) to designate graduation with Cum Laude, two asterisks () to designate Magna Cum Laude, and three asterisks () to designate Summa Cum Laude.
