

SDSU graduation exercises held Dec. 10

BROOKINGS, S.D. - South Dakota State University held its fall graduation exercises Saturday, Dec. 10.

Leon Wrage, distinguished professor emeritus of plant science, and Mary Perpich, associate professor emerita of journalism and mass communication, served as honorary marshals.

Three university faculty and staff received F. O. Butler Awards. They include: O. Kenneth Skorseth, field services manager of the South Dakota Local Transportation Assistance Program, for excellence in service; Scott Wallace, visual arts professor, for excellence in creative activity; and Dennis Helder, professor and Electrical Engineering and Computer Science Department head, for excellence in research.

Elizabeth (Betty) Berg, wife of former SDSU President Sherwood Berg, received an honorary doctor of public service degree.

Jerry Jorgensen, professor and dean of the College of Arts and Science, delivered the commencement address, "Looking Back to a Great Future."

The SDSU Concert Band, directed by Jim Coull, and Concert Choir, directed by Steven Grives, provided music.

SDSU President Peggy Gordon Miller, along with the college deans, presented diplomas. Others participating in the ceremony included: Dr. Carol J. Peterson, provost and vice president for Academic Affairs; Maj. Mike Herman, of the Army ROTC; Lt. Col. Craig Bond, Air Force ROTC; Terry Nelson, SDSU Alumni Association president; Richard Belatti, of the South Dakota Board of Regents; Joel Hefling, chair of the Academic Senate; and Kevin Kephart, Graduate School dean and vice president for research.

The names of honor graduates are marked with an asterisk (*) to designate graduation with Cum Laude, two asterisks () to designate Magna Cum Laude, and three asterisks () to designate Summa Cum Laude.
